

Yard 2002 Chair

Cizeta

Yard is a seating collection made up of chairs, stools and armchairs in wood. The feature that unites all three of these models is the large upholstered backrest that gives great comfort to the product, in addition to representing a clear, distinctive sign. The seat upholstery is framed by a structure that is very solid and sturdy, yet with a light and multiform aspect. The contemporary language that distinguishes the line is warmed by carefully chosen colours and finishes: the wooden material has finishes and natural tones that emphasise its veins and expert artisan craftsmanship. The seat has generous and welcoming dimensions; the armchair is made complete through the addition of armrests in metal and solid wood; the stool, in the same way, enjoys a large backrest that is both high and comfortable, unusual qualities in the market of reference.
